IN 2013, A PRAYER MEETING WAS HELD at one of the Lutheran churches in the Waria River area in Papua New Guinea (PNG). Individuals felt God was calling them to do Bible translation so their communities could clearly hear the Good News.

A multi-language project builds sustainability. The Zia, Suena, Yekora, Paiawa, Numbami, and Qaire languages make up the Waria Multi-language Project, named after the Waria River region.

PNG's lush jungles and mountainous terrain make travel challenging – many places can only be reached by plane, foot, or water. But God is calling and equipping the Church in these remote areas to serve in Bible translation.

Put God's Word in their hands.
