EXCITEMENT IS GROWING IN THE SHEK GALAGARI COMMUNITY! Final consultant checking of the New Testament translation—started in 2009—is complete. Typesetting, proofing, and printing are all that remain to bring God's Word to 200,000 Shekgalagari speakers in Botswana and Namibia.

Strong local vision and leadership throughout the years resulted in a community eager to participate in language translation and development. Shekgalagari materials are already in use, as well as Scripture portions. The completed New Testament will enhance worship and strengthen faith as Shekgalagari speakers read and hear God's Word in the language they understand best.
