THE LIBERIA TRANSLATION AND LITERACY ORGANIZATION (LIBTRALO) was established to support Bible translation, literacy, Scripture use, and multilingual education programs for language communities in Liberia. The development of Scripture audio dramas has expanded LIBTRALO's reach. They introduce non-Christians to Biblical stories and principles, raising interest in learning more about Jesus Christ.

All LIBTRALO staff members believe that a people's language, culture, and faith are crucial for growth and development. As a not-for-profit organization, they rely on support from donors to fund salaries, training, equipment, vehicle operation and travel expenses.

A fully funded LIBTRALO can help the people of Liberia be proud of their languages and use Scripture to enhance their faith, life, and culture.

Put God's Word in their hands.
