LUTHERAN BIBLE TRANSLATORS PARTNERED with the Bokyi Language Community in 2012 to encourage literacy and use of the Bokyi Bible, the audio recording of the New Testament, and the Jesus Film.

A literacy program is increasing the number of Bokyi who can read, write, and worship in their own language. The committee will also facilitate development of a Bible app. The upload of the Bokyi New Testament audio will make Scripture accessible to those who cannot yet read. They encourage community involvement and participation in Christian activities through a variety of projects. The dedicated committee provides Bokyi people with a variety of opportunities to engage with Scripture in their own language.
