THE OBE PEOPLE OF NORTHEAST Cross River State, Nigeria received the Gospel of Luke in 2018. “They were excited to receive God’s Word in their language,” said Rev. Linus Otronyi.

Rev. Otronyi mentors several language groups in Nigeria. He collaborates with the Obe Language Committee to promote Bible translation and Scripture engagement within the community.

Translation began with the Gospels. Scripture listening and reading groups make God’s Word accessible to those who cannot read and the literate.

An increasing number of Obe speakers will have an opportunity to come to faith, grow in Christ and worship as God’s Word becomes more accessible in their own language.
